DECISION IN THE FISH CASE .- The Mayor this morning, is the case of J. Walter Dier, charged by Mr. Wm. Javies with selling fish outside the market building contrary to the law on the subject, rendered the following deci-

Sion :
The case of Wm. Javins against Walter Dyer. for selling fresh fish outside of the City market. I am compelled after a careful study of the city ordinance on the question to decide in favor of Mr. Javins. The city ordinance, chapter xxiv, section 1 provides for the wholesale fish market during the season for fishing for thad and herrings to be holden at the Corporation what at Point West, but for the retail fish market, provid ed for in the same chapter and section, the words during the season for fishing for shad and herring are left out, and I am clearly of the opinion, that the City Council intended that the retail fish market should be holden in the market equare during the whole year, under rules gov-eroing the market and teerstore the relling of fresh fish by any person who may engage in the tusiness of buying and selling fresh fish outside the city market is in violation of the law on the subject. This is not however, intended to stop the sale of fresh fish by those engaged in the extehing of fish with their own hosts and nets. Persons of this class can still anywhere in the

Mr. Leonard Marbu y counsel for the de-fondant, asked if Mr. Dyer could sell fish from h s boat to parties on the whatf. The Mayor replied that it was his opinion that such solos of fish would be a violation of the law. This is the third time is has been decided that the sale of fresh fish cutside the market building is a violation of the law of the Ciry Council on the sulj c'. Ex Mayor Smith deciled twice
